UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

-vs-

DEONDRE SHAWN COOPER,

Defendant.

No. CR-06-248-M

PLEA AGREEMENT

Introduction

1. This document contains the entire plea agreement between defendant, Deondre Shawn Cooper, and the United States through its undersigned attorney. No other agreement or promise exists, nor may any additional agreement be entered into unless in writing and signed by all parties. Any unilateral modification of this agreement is hereby rejected by the United States. This agreement applies only to the criminal violations described and does not apply to any civil matter or any civil forfeiture proceeding except as specifically set forth. This agreement binds only the United States Attorney's Office of the Western District of Oklahoma and does not bind any other federal, state or local prosecuting, administrative or regulatory authority. If defendant does not accept the terms of this agreement by noon, ~~October 25, 2006~~ <sup>February 12, 2007</sup>, the offer is withdrawn. lmo

Guilty Plea

2. Defendant agrees to enter a plea of guilty to Counts 16 and 17 in Case Number CR-06-248-L charging in Count 16, possession with intent to distribute cocaine base "crack", in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 841(a)(1) and in Count 17, felon in possession of a firearm, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 922(g)(1).

To be found guilty of violating Title 21, United States Code, Section 841(a)(1), as charged in the Indictment, defendant must admit that he knowingly and intentionally possessed with intent to distribute approximately 22 grams of cocaine base ("crack"), a Schedule II controlled substance.

To be found guilty of violating Title 18, United States Code, Section 922(g)(1), as charged in the Indictment, defendant must admit that: (1) he knowingly possessed a firearm; (2) he was convicted of a felony, that is, a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, before he possessed the firearm, and (3) before possessing the firearm, the firearm had moved at some time from one state to another.

Maximum Penalty, Restitution and Special Assessments

3. The maximum penalty that could be imposed on Count 16 as a result of this plea is not less than 5 years and not more than 40 years imprisonment or a fine of $2,000,000.00, or both such fine and imprisonment, as well as a mandatory special assessment of $100.00, and a term of supervised release of not less than 4 years.

The maximum penalty that could be imposed on Count 17 as a result of this plea is not more than 10 years imprisonment, or a fine of $250,000.00, or both such fine and imprisonment, as well as a mandatory special assessment of $100.00, and a term of supervised release of not more than 3 years.

4. In addition, the Court may order the payment of restitution to the victim(s) of the offense.

5. Defendant agrees to pay the special assessment due the United States to the Office of the United States Court Clerk immediately following sentencing. Defendant understands that any fine or restitution ordered by the Court is immediately due unless the Court provides for payment on a date certain or in installments.

6. For certain statutory offenses, the Court must also impose a term of supervised release, which defendant will begin to serve after being released from custody. For all other offenses, the court may impose a term of supervised release to be served following release from custody. During the term of supervised release, defendant will be subject to conditions that will include prohibitions against violating local, state or federal law, reporting requirements, restrictions on travel and residence, and possible testing for controlled substance use. If defendant violates the conditions of his supervised release, the Court may revoke his supervised release, and sentence him to an additional term of imprisonment. This additional term of imprisonment would be served without credit for the time defendant successfully spent on supervised release. When combined, the original term of imprisonment and any subsequent term of imprisonment the Court imposes may exceed the statutory maximum prison term allowable for the offense.

FORFEITURE

A. Defendant agrees to forfeit to the United States voluntarily and immediately all of his right, title and interest to any and all assets which are subject to forfeiture pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853, which are in the possession and control of defendant or nominees. B. Defendant agrees each of the listed assets are the proceeds of unlawful drug activity as set forth in the Indictment.

C. Defendant agrees to fully assist the United States in the forfeiture of the listed assets and to take whatever lawful steps are necessary to pass clear title to the United States, including but not limited to surrender of title and execution of any documents necessary to transfer his interest in any of the above property to the United States, and assist in bringing any assets located outside the United States within the jurisdiction of the United States, and taking whatever lawful steps are necessary to ensure that assets subject to forfeiture are not sold, disbursed, wasted, hidden, or otherwise made unavailable for forfeiture.

D. Defendant agrees to make a full and complete disclosure of all assets in which defendant has any interest or over which defendant exercises control and those which are held or controlled by a nominee(s). Defendant represents and warrants to the United States that he has no direct or indirect interest, whether held in his name, or in the name of another, in any property or asset that would be subject to forfeiture on the basis of the violations covered by this plea agreement, other than those assets listed above. Defendant understands and acknowledges that the United States is relying upon defendant's representations in entering into this plea agreement. If those representations are knowingly false or inaccurate in any way, the United States may declare this agreement null and void and prosecute defendant for any and all his federal criminal violations, including perjury and obstruction of justice.

E. Defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives his right to a jury trial on the forfeiture of assets. Defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives all constitutional, legal and equitable defenses to the forfeiture of these assets in any proceeding, and further waives any claim or defense under the Eighth Amendment to the United States Constitution, including any claim of excessive fine, to the forfeiture or disposition of assets by the United States, the State of Oklahoma or its subdivisions.

F. Defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives any right to appeal or collaterally attack any matter in connection with the forfeiture provided for herein.

G. Forfeiture of defendant's assets shall not be treated as satisfaction of any fine, restitution, cost of imprisonment, or any other penalty this Court may impose upon defendant in addition to forfeiture.

H. The United States reserves its right to proceed against any remaining assets not identified either in this agreement or in any civil action which may be resolved in connection with this plea, including any property in which defendant has any interest or control, if said assets, real or personal, tangible or intangible, constitute or are traceable to proceeds of or facilitated violations of Title 21, United States Code, Section 841, et seq.

I. Defendant agrees that forfeiture of substitute assets as authorized herein and pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(p) shall not be deemed an alteration of defendant's sentence.

J. Defendant agrees not to file a claim to any of the listed property in any civil proceeding, administrative or judicial, which may be initiated.

K. Defendant hereby waives his right to notice of any forfeiture proceeding involving the listed property, and agrees not to file a claim or assist others in filing a claim in that forfeiture proceeding.

L. In the event any claim is successfully made by third parties to any of the assets listed above, defendant agrees to forfeit substitute assets equal in value to those assets claimed by third parties.

M. Defendant voluntarily abandons all right, title, interest in and claim to all of the property described above in order that appropriate disposition may be made by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Drug Enforcement Administration, Oklahoma City Police Department, or other entity.

Sentencing Guidelines

7. The parties acknowledge that Title 18, United States Code, Section 3553(a), directs the Court to consider certain factors in imposing sentence, including the Sentencing Guidelines promulgated by the United States Sentencing Commission. Consequently, although the parties recognize that the Sentencing Guidelines are only advisory, they have entered into certain stipulations and agreements with respect to the Guidelines. Based upon the information that is known to the parties on the date this agreement is executed, they expect to take, but are not limited to, the following positions at sentencing: (1) the government is aware of approximately 1,000 pills of methylenedioxymethamphetamine (MDMA), and approximately 22 grams of cocaine base attributable to the defendant, and (2) the defendant should not be assigned a leadership role in the offense pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3B1.1, or a mitigating role in the offense pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3B1.2.

The parties agree defendant should receive a 2-level downward adjustment for acceptance of responsibility pursuant to USSG §3E1.1(a), if he commits no further crimes and fully complies with all of the other terms of this agreement. Further, to the extent the Court finds defendant qualifies for that 2-level downward adjustment and USSG §3E1.1(b) is applicable, the government agrees to move for the additional 1-level downward adjustment of §3E1.1(b), if defendant accepts the terms of this plea agreement by the deadline established in Paragraph 1.

Apart from any expressed agreements and stipulations, the parties reserve the right to advocate for, and present evidence relevant to, other guideline adjustments and sentencing factors for consideration by the U.S. Probation Office and the Court.

The parties have entered into this plea agreement under the provisions of Rule 11(c)(1)(B). Defendant also acknowledges and understands that the Court is not bound by, nor obligated to accept, these stipulations, agreements, or recommendations of the United States or defendant. And, even if the Court rejects one or more of these stipulations, agreements, or recommendations, that fact alone would not allow defendant to withdraw his plea of guilty. It is the expectation of the United States that its criminal investigation of defendant's conduct (as opposed to the wrongdoing of others) will cease upon the signing of this plea agreement. However, subject to the terms and conditions of this plea agreement (particularly the conditions concerning §1B1.8 set out in paragraph 11), the United States expressly reserves the right to take positions that deviate from the foregoing stipulations, agreements, or recommendations in the event that material credible evidence requiring such a deviation is discovered during the course of the United States' investigation subsequent to the signing of this agreement or arises from sources independent of the United States, including the U.S. Probation Office.

Waiver of Right to Appeal and Bring Collateral Challenge

8. Defendant understands that the Court will consider those factors in Title 18, United States Code, Section 3553(a) in determining his sentence. Defendant also understands that the Court has jurisdiction and authority to impose any sentence within the statutory maximum for the offense(s) to which he is pleading guilty. Defendant further understands that Title 28, United States Code, Section 1291, and Title 18, United States Code, Section 3742, give him the right to appeal the judgment and sentence imposed by the Court. Acknowledging all this, defendant in exchange for the promises and concessions made by the United States in this plea agreement, knowingly and voluntarily waives his right to:

a. Appeal or collaterally challenge his guilty plea, sentence and restitution imposed, and any other aspect of his conviction, including but not limited to any rulings on pretrial suppression motions or any other pretrial dispositions of motions and issues;

b. Appeal, collaterally challenge, or move to modify under 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(2) or some other ground, his sentence as imposed by the Court and the manner in which the sentence is determined, provided the sentence is within or below the advisory guideline range determined by the Court to apply to this case. Defendant acknowledges that this waiver remains in full effect and is enforceable, even if the Court rejects one or more of the positions of the United States or defendant set forth in paragraph 7.

c. It is provided that defendant specifically does not waive the right to appeal a sentence above the advisory sentencing guideline range determined by the Court to apply to this case.

9. The United States agrees to waive its right under 18 U.S.C. § 3742 to appeal the sentence imposed by the Court and the manner in which the sentence was determined, provided defendant's sentence is within the advisory guideline range determined by the Court to apply to this case. By this agreement, the United States specifically does not waive its right to appeal a sentence below the advisory sentencing guideline range determined by the Court to apply to this case.

Waiver of Claim to Prevailing Party Status

10. Defendant expressly acknowledges that he is not a "prevailing party" within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. § 3006A with respect to the count of conviction or any other count or charge that may be dismissed pursuant to this agreement. If defendant is represented by retained counsel, he voluntarily, knowingly, and intelligently waives any rights he may have to seek reasonable attorney's fees and other litigation expenses under 18 U.S.C. § 3006A.

Obligations of Defendant

11. Defendant agrees to cooperate fully with the United States by providing truthful, candid and complete information as to all matters within his knowledge concerning his wrongful conduct as well as any wrongful conduct involving others. Pursuant to §1B1.8 of the Sentencing Guidelines, when such information is first provided to the United States by defendant (instead of initially provided by any accomplices of defendant or other independent sources), it will not be used against defendant in determining the advisory sentencing guideline range. Defendant understands that such cooperation will include (a) attending all meetings at which the United States requests his presence; (b) providing to the United States, upon request, any document, record, or other tangible evidence relating to matters about which the United States or any designated law enforcement agency inquires; (c) testifying truthfully before the grand jury and at any trial or other court proceedings if requested to do so by the United States; (d) bringing to the attention of the United States all crimes which he has committed, and all administrative, civil or criminal proceedings, investigations, or prosecutions in which he has been or is a subject, target, party, or witness. Defendant shall commit no further crimes.

12. It is understood by the parties that no statements made by defendant subsequent to and in response to this agreement will be used directly against him in any subsequent criminal proceeding, except in a prosecution for perjury or a false-statement offense. This restriction does not affect the rights and obligations of the United States, as stated herein, concerning the prosecution of the instant charged offenses. Moreover, the parties also recognize that the United States specifically reserves the right to (a) use any statements made by defendant to impeach him if he ever testifies in an inconsistent or contrary manner during any trial or other proceeding; and (b) to pursue and investigate any leads which may arise from statements made by defendant.

13. It is understood that, should defendant commit any further crimes or should it be determined that he has knowingly given false, incomplete, or misleading testimony or information, or should he otherwise violate any provision of this agreement, the United States may declare this agreement null and void and prosecute defendant for any and all his federal criminal violations, including perjury and obstruction of justice. Any such prosecution that is not time-barred by the applicable statute of limitations on the date of the signing of this agreement may be brought against defendant, notwithstanding the expiration of the statute of limitations between the signing of this agreement and the commencement of such prosecution. Defendant hereby waives all defenses based on the statute of limitations with respect to any prosecution that is not time-barred on the date that this agreement is signed.

14. The parties also recognize that in the event it is determined that defendant has committed any further crimes, knowingly given false, incomplete, or misleading testimony or information, or otherwise violated any provision of this agreement, (a) all statements made by defendant to the United States or other designated law enforcement agents, and any testimony given by defendant before a grand jury or other tribunal, whether prior to or subsequent to the signing of this agreement, and any leads from such statements or testimony shall be admissible in evidence in any criminal proceeding brought against defendant; and (b) defendant shall assert no claim under the United States Constitution, any statute, Rule 11(f) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Rule 410 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, or any other federal rule or law that such statements or any leads therefrom should be suppressed. It is the intent of this agreement to waive all rights in the foregoing respects.

Defendant expressly agrees and understands that his provision of information and other cooperation referred to in this Section may occur when defendant's attorney is not present. However, where the factual circumstances make the request reasonable, it is understood by the parties that the United States will honor and consent to a prior written request by defendant's counsel to be present when defendant provides cooperation to the United States.

The Obligations of the United States

15. If defendant enters a plea of guilty as described above and fully meets all obligations under this agreement, the United States will move to dismiss Counts 1, and 15 of the Indictment as to the defendant and he will not be further prosecuted by the United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of Oklahoma for any crimes related to his participation in drug trafficking crimes during the period from September 2003 through July 6, 2006. This agreement does not provide any protection against prosecution for any crime not specifically described above.

16. It is understood that the sentence to be imposed upon defendant is within the sole discretion of the Court. The United States does not make any promise or representation as to what sentence defendant will receive. The United States reserves the right to inform the Probation Office and the Court of (a) the nature and extent of defendant's activities with respect to this case and all other activities of defendant which the United States deems relevant to sentencing, and (b) the nature and extent of defendant's cooperation with the United States.

17. Further, the United States, in its sole discretion and by whatever means it deems appropriate, will evaluate defendant's cooperation in determining whether a motion for downward departure from the advisory guideline range under §5K1.1 of the Sentencing Guidelines, including a motion to depart below a statutory minimum sentence under Title 18, United States Code, Section 3553(e), or a reduction of sentence under Rule 35(b), Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure is appropriate. It is understood that the decision whether to make such a motion is likewise solely within the discretion of the United States, and that a negative decision will not allow a guilty plea to be withdrawn.

Signatures

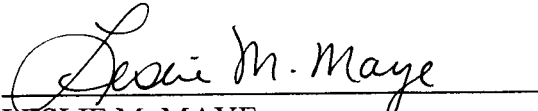

18. By signing this agreement, defendant acknowledges that he has discussed its terms with his attorney and understands and accepts those terms. Further, defendant acknowledges that this document contains the only terms of the agreement concerning his plea of guilty in this case, and that there are no other deals, bargains, agreements, or understandings which modify or alter these terms.
